

Celebrate the History and Culture of Old Cairo

SUNDAY, APRIL 19
1:00–4:00 p.m.

Oriental Institute Museum
1155 E. 58th St., Chicago, IL

Register at oi.uchicago.edu/register
Free.

In conjunction with the Oriental Institute Museum's special exhibit:

Everyone is welcome to celebrate Old Cairo at the Oriental Institute. Both adults and families are invited to drop by the Museum throughout the afternoon to experience the topic of our special exhibition A Cosmopolitan City: Muslims, Christians, and Jews in Old Cairo through music, hands-on activities, poetry, and more. The event begins with a lecture on the history of Old Cairo and ends with a performance by the Middle Eastern Music Ensemble.

This program has been generously supported by the Franke Institute for the Humanities at the University of Chicago.

THE FRANKE INSTITUTE
FOR THE HUMANITIES

Image Caption: Wool textile fragment. OIM E17010 (D. 027360). Courtesy of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago/Photo: Anna Ressler.