

Sacred Trash:

The Lost and Found World of the Cairo Geniza

Adina Hoffman and Peter Cole

A special lecture in connection with the Oriental Institute
Museum exhibit:

Assistive Listening Devices are available upon request via oi-education@uchicago.edu.

THURSDAY, MAY 14
7:00–9:00 p.m.

The Oriental Institute
Breasted Hall

1155 E. 58th St., Chicago, IL

Registration required oi.uchicago.edu/register
Free for members; $10 for non-members

Writers Adina Hoffman and Peter Cole will take us inside a remarkable time capsule: the Cairo Geniza. MacArthur Fellowship-winning poet and translator Peter Cole and acclaimed essayist and biographer Adina Hoffman are coauthors of Sacred Trash: The Lost and Found World of the Cairo Geniza, winner of the 2011 American Library Association prize for the Jewish book of the year.

Top image: Solomon Schechter with the Cairo Geniza manuscripts, University of Cambridge.
Credit: Syndics of Cambridge University Library.

