

ORIENTAL INSTITUTE NAMED ENDOWMENTS

114

PEOPLE

During 1989-90, income from the following named funds helped support various activities, scholarships, teaching, publications, and projects, both in the field and here at The Oriental Institute:

The Ira M. and Elizabeth M. Price Memorial
Endowment Fund

The William J. Roberts Endowment Fund

The Maurice D. Schwartz and Lois M. Schwartz
Endowment Fund

The Chester D. Tripp Endowment Fund

The John A. Wilson Professorship in Oriental Studies

The Ruby K. Worner Endowment Fund

The Oriental Institute depends greatly upon income from its endowments. While endowments are generally created with one gift, they may also be established over a period of time, with an initial gift and a commitment to add to the fund over the years until it reaches the level of an endowment. The latter method is currently being employed by some of our members. ▼ Endowments may be named for the donor, for someone the donor wants to honor or memorialize, or may be anonymous. Endowments may be established for a specific purpose, or the expenditure of the income may be left to the discretion of the Institute's Director.
